

ADOPTIVE PARENTS' RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES IN ILLINOIS

This document does not constitute legal advice. Legal advice is dependent on the specific circumstances of each situation and jurisdiction. The information in this document is an overview and does not cover all cases or facets of adoption law in Illinois. It cannot replace the advice of an attorney licensed in your state.

Illinois has progressive adoption laws that protect the rights of birth parents and adoptive parents. Prior to paying any agency fees, adoptive parents who are using the services of an adoption agency in Illinois must receive this document from their caseworker as soon as is reasonably practical after meeting with an agency worker. Adoptive parents may take this document home to read in private prior to reviewing it with a worker from the agency.

This document provides adoptive parents with information regarding their choices, rights and responsibilities as they relate to adopting a child in Illinois. The information generally refers to the rights of adoptive parents in agency-assisted and private Illinois adoptions, and does not refer to situations involving adoptions that go through the child welfare system and the Juvenile Court. While much of the information contained in this document is applicable, prospective adoptive parents who are providing long term foster care and who are considering adoption should seek the assistance of their caseworkers and their attorneys.

The different ways to adopt a child are to:

- 1) adopt domestically through an adoption agency that is licensed in Illinois or elsewhere in the U.S. (an 'agency assisted adoption');
- 2) work with an adoption agency that is licensed in Illinois or elsewhere in the U.S. to adopt internationally (an 'international or intercountry adoption'); or
- 3) work with an adoption attorney to adopt domestically (a 'private adoption'; other states may or may not be involved); or
- 4) become a licensed foster parent and provide long term foster care for a child who has been removed from his or her parents due to abuse, neglect or dependence. If the child cannot return home to his or her birth parents, the placement will likely convert to an adoption.

Note: No agency or attorney can guarantee in advance that you will be approved as an adoptive parent, that a child will be placed with you or that if a child is placed with you that you will be ultimately approved by the court as an adoptive parent.

RIGHTS OF ADOPTIVE PARENTS

ADOPTIVE PARENTS WORKING WITH AN ILLINOIS ADOPTION AGENCY HAVE MANY RIGHTS, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO:

2. Make decisions free from pressure or coercion, including your decision to accept or reject the placement of a particular child.
3. Be informed of the rights of birth parents.
4. Receive a written schedule of agency fees and refund policies as well as a copy of the agency's annual report.

Note: An agency may not require you to make a donation, or increase its fees without notice. Agencies may not charge additional fees and expenses beyond those disclosed in the adoption fee schedule unless additional fees are reasonably required by the circumstances and you are informed of them before they are incurred. In addition, an agency may not charge excessive fees and they must be based on services provided to adoptive families and to birth parents.

5. Know whether or not the agency will provide you with a copy of your home study. Adoptive parents also have the right to request a transfer of their foster parent licensing or home study file to another agency and the right to expect that the transfer be made in a timely manner.
6. For the adoption of a child born in Illinois, receive in writing, no later than the date of placement, non-identifying information (if known) concerning the child and his or her birth family to be placed with you for adoption, including the:
 - Date and place of birth of the child; immunization records; and conditions or diseases believed to be hereditary;
 - Drugs or medications taken by the child's biological mother during pregnancy;
 - Psychological and psychiatric information known about the child and birth family;
 - Any other information that may be a factor influencing the child's present or future physical, mental or emotional health;
 - Information on previous placements, if any, and reasons for placement changes, excluding identifying information on previous caregivers;
 - Any known behavioral information about the child necessary to care for the child and other children in your home;
 - Age, general physical appearance, ethnic background, race, religion, education, occupations, hobbies, interests and talents of each of the biological parents;
 - Existence of any other children born to the biological parents;
 - Information about biological grandparents; reason for emigrating into the United States, if applicable, and country of origin;
 - Relationship between biological parents;
 - Detailed medical and mental health histories of the child, the biological parents, and members of their immediate families;
 - In the case of emergency placements, known information may be provided verbally, but subsequently must be provided in writing;
 - Information learned by the agency between the time of placement and the time of the adoption finalization as it is acquired;

Note: If you are adopting a child from another country, the availability of the abovementioned information will be limited. If you are adopting a child born in another State, you should receive all known background information and birth records.

7. Adoptive parents may view supporting documentation in the child's file in the presence of casework staff at the Illinois agency, but may not have access to identifying or personal information about other people. Adoptive parents should be advised by the adoption agency if certain information about birth family members is not provided due to confidentiality protections under federal law.
8. Training that includes counseling and guidance for ensuring a successful adoption. You must complete the training within the time frame required by your agency.
9. Confidentiality of your identifying information (unless otherwise required by Illinois law or court order).
10. Seek medical, emotional and social work advice from independent resources prior to accepting the placement of a particular child.
11. If you are adopting domestically, you can ask to participate in an open or closed adoption with your adopted child's birth parents and ask to meet them prior to placement; or to choose another agency if your request cannot be honored. Any agreement or promises regarding plans to have contact with the birth parents of your child or receive information after the finalization of the adoption cannot be enforced under Illinois law.

AS AN ADOPTIVE PARENT WORKING WITH AN ATTORNEY TOWARD A PRIVATE ADOPTION, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO:

1. Receive information regarding legal fees, expenses and refund policies.
2. Inquire about the attorney's license and status. You may access this information by calling the Illinois Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission at 800-826-8625 or 312-565-2600 or accessing its website at www.iardc.org. Another resource is the American Academy of Adoption Attorneys website: www.adoptionattorneys.org/ or telephone at 202/832-2222.
3. Ask about and expect that your attorney have experience in adoption law.
4. Inquire about any conflict of interest that would affect the attorney's representation of you. An attorney may not represent both the birth parents and the adoptive parents at the same time. Similarly, you should inquire about the attorney's relationship with any agencies with which you have worked.
5. Ask your attorney to explain to you the parameters of confidentiality of the private information you disclose to your attorney.
