

Dear Birthparents,

Thank you for taking the time to get to know us. We want you to know what a privilege it is to share a little bit about ourselves with you. We can only imagine how difficult and challenging this decision must be. Your courage for considering adoption is so admirable.

We are Ryan and Erin and we met while working together. We started out as friends which turned into more once the timing was right. We helped each other through school and after 7 years of dating, Ryan proposed on center ice during a hockey game. Erin was blindfolded under the assumption she was playing a game on the ice not knowing what was really happening. She said yes and we were married in 2010.

A year later we were blessed with twin boys and then in 2014 we were blessed once again with our 3rd beautiful baby boy. They are the light and meaning of our lives. The final piece to our family puzzle would be to provide a loving home and fun filled life for your baby girl.
