

Hello!

Gosh. Where do we even begin? First off, THANK YOU! We do not yet know the circumstances that brought you here today - to this precise moment - but we want you to know that we support your journey. There are simply not enough words to convey our gratitude, not only in your decision to adopt, but in your consideration of us. We hope we get the opportunity to meet you in person, but for now, we will just say thanks again for taking the time to get to know us.

We are a bit goofy, you could say, but authentically us. We love to laugh, go on adventures and try new things. We appreciate the little things in life, but above all else, we value family and togetherness. Adoption has always been the plan for us and we are extremely excited to start our family. We have an enormous amount of love that we cannot wait to share. We want to welcome your child into a safe, happy home that is full of love and to give them every opportunity that we possibly can. We can promise what we know will be true within our home - that we will cherish all the moments big and small and that we will love your child with every ounce of our beings.

We sincerely hope that you find strength and clarity in your search and peace in your decision. Please know that you, your loved ones and your precious little one will be in our thoughts and our prayers, regardless of whether we are the right fit for you.

With much love,

Sam & Melissa
